Vancouver Mayor Appeals To Strikers To Return To Camps

Personal Plea Made By G. G. McGee, M.P.P., To Men To Fit In Again With System Throughout B.C.

Transportation Is Now Available

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 16.—Mayor G. G. McGee, M.P.P., made a personal appeal to relief camp strikers to-day to return to the camps.

"It is true a great many men declare that if they return their troubles will be forgotten and the camp policy will be continued," he said. "Unfortunately for the city of Vancouver and the provincial government, the relief camp policy is a matter exclusively in the jurisdiction of the federal government."

"He said neither the province nor the city could undertake a work and wage programme without the support of the Dominion government. "If the Dominion will not change the camp policy and inaugurate a work and wage programme, then there is only one way to change it in a constitutional manner—that is by changing the government."

"Good order, peace and a disturbance of the peace and order of the city of Vancouver will not constitute a breach of the peace."

After a consultation with Attorney-General Gordon Brown, pointing the mayor said transportation to the camps was available to the men now here. "These strikers to return might easily be given the same facilities as the men who are now in the camps. The government service, who would provide transportation to all camps have been advised. The strikers would be sent off by the same method as the men who are now in the camps."

ADULT VOCAL EVENTS HEARD

Grade A Sopranos Give Enjoyment at Festival To-day; Tacoma Girl Wins

Adult vocal solo classes completed the centre of attention of the first United Church bazaar morning, when grade A and B sopranos, grade A sopranos, grade A mezzo-sopranos and grade B sopranos were adjudicated by George Dodd.

Perhaps the most enjoyment was got from the grade A sopranos, of whom Lena Sanders, Tacoma, was adjudicated the best, and Ida May Pollock, Vancouver, second. Mrs. Sidney Sherratt, Victoria, was third, and a mark behind came Esther Wilkinson and Lenora Sir-John.

The competition in this class had two unusually beautiful test pieces, Charlotte Taylor's "Spring Has Come" and the moving Handel "Care Drive."

Mr. Dodd, who said he was the Coleridge selection from "The Departure of Illusion" when he was still a student, the song being the Albert Hall in London, had the five sopranos on the stage after the competition and conducted them through the spirited piece.

The women in the earlier grade A mezzo-soprano class also derived this additional benefit from the need for a change of tempo, being asked to come to the stage in a group. The mezzo-soprano contest was won by Isabelle Pike with a mark of 125. Sylvia Holland came second with 120.

Only two marks separated the five contestants in the grade B mezzo-soprano class, won by Douglas G. Smith, a student of the Victoria Conservatory of Music, with a mark of 125. The other four were: George F. E. Farmer had 120, Freda for the spirit he put into the first test piece, "The Song of the Sea," and the other two, J. J. P. and J. J. P., were tied with 115.

The proposed grade A and B tenor class attracted just two competitors. The winner was G. J. P. with a mark of 125. The other two were: "Morning Song" (Sherratt) and "The Song of the Sea" (Quiller). The adjudicator drew attention to the fine quality of the tenors, and good vocal tone and resonance. George F. E. Farmer had 120.

Prized for the spirit he put into the first test piece, "The Song of the Sea," and the other two, J. J. P. and J. J. P., were tied with 115.

CHAIN LETTER BRINGS HAY

While numbers of Victorians are busy with time, dollar and five-dollar chain letters, Mr. E. E. Conley has something else to show for his venture at Denver, Colorado. All he needs now is a chain letter here to launch into a new career. He received a five-dollar letter the other day, but before he mailed copies on to others he changed the wording to ask for a bale of hay, two pairs of old socks and used razor blades. His surprise was great when an express truck pulled up to his door and unloaded the first of 15,000 bales of hay (above) he boasted he would get if the chain program should hold good.

SEVEN ARE AIR ROUTE PIONEERS

FOREST FIRES HIT ISLAND

Toll in Coast Region Heaviest in Early Part of This Season, Figures Show

Vancouver Island and other parts of the Vancouver forest district suffered the heaviest loss in the first half of the season for the 1935 season, according to figures issued by the forest branch of the Department of Lands to-day.

Returns up to the end of the week showed thirty-three fire occurrences in the southern Coast region, as compared with eight for the same period of 1934. It was the only district in the province where the heaviest was reported.

Other districts all reported a better situation than last year. Prince Rupert had only eight fires against thirteen last year. Kamloops twelve against seventeen and Nelson eighteen against twenty-three. The total of occurrences in the entire province was seventy-one compared with seventy-four in 1934 and forty-eight in 1935.

Canada Gives Head To Metropolitan Opera

Edward Johnson, World-famous Tenor Born in Ontario, Named Manager of New York Company

Associated Press
New York, May 16.—Edward Johnson, a Canadian who rose from choir boy to the front rank of the world's tenors, assumed the general management of the Metropolitan Opera Association here to-day.

His appointment to the post vacated two months ago by the resignation of Augustus H. Wood, a Canadian, came again last Friday by the sudden death of Herbert Wilcoxon, who was named yesterday evening. It was received by the world of music with surprise.

Mr. Johnson, a native of Guelph, Ont., thus takes over directorship of an opera company with which he has been connected since 1921. A former general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Association, he is expected to improve his role in the future.

Mr. Johnson is a very good friend of mine and from what I know of him, he is fully capable of upholding the prestige of the Metropolitan," continued Mr. Wood, who has been his close associate since 1921.

"We have had a perfectly splendid time at Vancouver Island and will certainly be back soon," said Mr. Johnson.

Five Travelers, Pilot and Mechanic, Bound From Calgary to Vancouver, Cross Rockies on First Passenger Plane Trip on Record, and Pilot Lands Machine at Grand Forks, Awaiting Better Weather For Hop to Coast

FLIGHT OF 1919 IS RECALLED

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 16.—A message from Grand Forks, B.C., early this afternoon stated the trimotored airplane which hopped off this morning from Calgary carrying five passengers on the first commercial flight over the Rocky Mountains to Vancouver had landed at that southeastern British Columbia town and the pilot was waiting for better weather. Further details were lacking.

Calgary, May 16.—Under a cloudy sky, a trimotored airplane, with five passengers and a pilot, left Calgary this morning for the first commercial flight over the Rocky Mountains to Vancouver.

The big all-metal plane carried five passengers on the journey from here and it was stated four more would be picked up at Kelowna, B.C., first scheduled stop in the cross-the-mountains hop. The flight said they expected to be in Vancouver with five hours.

A Vancouver pilot made the first solo flight in 1919, taking eleven hours.

The passengers who left here were Bill McLaren, a pilot who flew 22,000 miles last year over the northern British Columbia mining fields; Robert Williamson, and Stanley Williams, his son, and Mrs. J. J. O'Connor and daughter, all of Calgary.

It was planned to follow a direct compass course over the mountains. Early morning weather reports were favorable.

Flight-Lieut. R. G. May, flying a war-time "Jenny," was the first airman to cross the mountains. He left Vancouver at dawn, August 5, 1919, and landed here by the light of gas flares. He made several stops en route.

In 1920, Flight-Lieut. W. L. Bunting, of Calgary, with an observer, covered the same route in four hours and fifteen minutes.

GEORGIA VOTES ON LIQUOR
Atlanta, Ga., May 16 (Associated Press).—Despite a flood of 1,150 votes for repeal of Georgia's century-old prohibition law, it appeared to-day an official tabulation would be necessary to decide definitely the result of yesterday's special referendum.

"He'll Make Wonderful Job of It," Says Tibbitt of Johnson

"He'll make a wonderful job of it," commented Lawrence Tibbitt, operatic, radio and movie actor, on learning that Edward Johnson, Canadian tenor, had been appointed general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Association in connection to the late Herbert Wilcoxon.

"He is a very good friend of mine and from what I know of him, he is fully capable of upholding the prestige of the Metropolitan," continued Mr. Tibbitt, who has been his close associate since 1921.

"We have had a perfectly splendid time at Vancouver Island and will certainly be back soon," said Mr. Johnson.

Quote League Vows As Italian-Ethiopian Dispute Continues

Viscount Cecil Criticizes Premier Mussolini; London Times Says Hoped-for Moderation Not Displayed

Canadian Press and Associated Press
London, May 16.—Viscount Cecil of Chelwood, criticising Premier Mussolini for his Ethiopian policy, declared to-day they could not fairly criticize Italian government if she ignored her own League of Nations vows.

"It is impossible to claim respect for the collective opinion in the north and south," said Lord Cecil, who is president of the League of Nations Union of Great Britain. "The one unilateral breach of part five of the Treaty of Versailles (the military clause) is justly condemned unless equal sanctity is admitted for part one, which contains the covenant of the League."

Viscount Cecil pointed out Premier Mussolini had adhered to the League resolution supporting "collective enforcement of peace within the framework of the League of Nations."

The circumstances of the Italian-Ethiopian situation, said the famous peace advocate, aimed him to look "loyally to the coming meeting of the League Council."

STUN CANAL
The question of whether Great Britain might close the Suez Canal and British ports to Italian warships and transports was resulting increased Italian anger and Liberal and Labor political circles to-day.

Associated Press
West Dorsetshire, Eng., May 16.—Col. T. E. Lawrence, the famed "Lawrence of Arabia," was gradually growing weaker here this evening with slight hope held for his recovery from injuries suffered in an accident Monday.

Attaches at the military hospital where he was taken Monday evening after his motorcycle had collided with a boy's bicycle, flinging him 120 feet away, said the leader of the Arab revolt in the desert was sinking.

Newey's attorneys prepared to argue a writ of habeas corpus later in the day. He was sentenced for contempt.

JOHN BUCHAN MADE BARON

Governor-General-designate of Canada Is Choosing Title

Canadian Press
London, May 16.—The title to be chosen by John Buchan, Governor-General-designate of Canada, as a baron is not likely to be announced until several formalities have been fulfilled.

Meantime the eminent author and parliamentarian will continue to be addressed as "Mr. Buchan."

Announcement the King had approved conferment of a barony on him was made yesterday evening.

An edition of Buchan has been in circulation since the fifteenth century. Ronald Brichton—like Mr. Buchan, a Scot—succeeded his father as fifteenth earl of the line last year. This, however, would not preclude the possibility of a barony following the practice rather favored nowadays by new peers of adopting their surnames as their titles, in which case the words "Baron Brichton" would follow the surname of the peer.

BULLETS HIT FLEEING AUTO

Vancouver Police Give Chase, But Two Car Thieves Escape

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 16.—A stolen automobile, used by two men who escaped from police yesterday evening after a long chase in which the officers fired a number of shots, was found abandoned to-day.

The car was struck by four bullets, one of which shattered the glass of a side window and imbedded itself in the upholstery of the seat near the driver.

Lighting the automobile, which they recognized as one stolen earlier in the evening, the officers started to pursue and after a long chase caught up with it on a trail near Hastings Street.

One of the officers leaped on the running board of the stolen machine, but was thrown to the ground when the driver started the car again. Both officers opened fire and wounded the chase, but were outdistanced and the pair escaped.

W. E. Harper, Acting Director of Observatory, Will Read Four Papers at Hamilton, Ont.; Dr. C. S. Beals Will Describe New Instrument Perfected Here

W. E. Harper, acting director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, and Dr. C. S. Beals, a member of the staff, will attend the annual meeting of the Royal Society of Canada, in Hamilton, Ont., from May 21 to 24. Dr. Harper left the city on Tuesday night and Mr. Harper will depart at midnight to-night.

Mr. Harper and Dr. Beals are Fellows of the society. They will present papers by themselves and by Dr. J. A. Pearce, who will be in charge of the observatory during Mr. Harper's absence. Dr. Beals will speak in Hamilton and Winnipeg, before the astronomical societies and will be joined by Mr. Harper at Winnipeg.

Dr. Harper will address the Hamilton society on the night of his arrival there, and subsequently will speak in Toronto.

The Royal Society is the major scientific and literary organization in the Dominion and embraces five main divisions—French history and literature, English history and literature, mathematics and physical sciences, poetry and biological sciences. Section three is the largest, embracing mathematics, astronomy, physics and chemistry, and at present there are about sixty Fellows in this section.

TO GIVE THREE PAPERS
At the Royal Society Dr. Beals will present three papers of his own: "The Star P Cygni," "The Mathematics of Interstellar Lines," and "A Self-recording Spectrometer."

Concerning the first paper the observations made at Victoria indicate that this star is continually ejecting atoms from its surface into space. These ejected atoms form a nebulous envelope around the star in which the emissions and absorption lines are believed to originate. Evidence has been obtained which indicates that the nebulous gas surrounding the star are stimulated into emission and that the more highly ionized atoms are in shells nearest the stellar surface while atoms of low ionization are found in the outer shell.

New Laws Soon For Business

Manion Says Bills Based on Price Spreads Report
Ready For Commons

Canadian Press
Toronto, May 16.—While the federal government would shortly bring down legislation to implement recommendations of the mass buying commission, business men must realize they should aid in "cleaning their house," says R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways, told a Conservative meeting in nearby East York yesterday evening.

The commission report showed only 8 per cent of Canadian business men were guilty of exploitation, Dr. Manion said, but unless the government "cleaned up the mess" shown in the report there was danger of a law which would come to power without taking different steps to correct the evil.

In a lengthy review of the record of the government, Dr. Manion said that the greatest length with the price spreads report and the railway situation, he reiterated the government's opposition to amalgamation of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways. He warned there would be no saving through amalgamation and if carried out it would be at the expense of labor.

The Bennett government set up the mass buying commission and that government would bring in legislation to correct the evils shown in the report, said Dr. Manion.

FROM FIVE PER CENT
"Twenty-five per cent of our business men are decent citizens," he said. "Five per cent have been guilty of the exploitation. The legislation to be submitted shortly will be largely for that 5 per cent."

ANNOUNCING A GOLF POLICY

George Grant is the golfer as tall as a tree. And his wife, as I'm told, can do nothing with him. His clothing is shabby, his flannels are frayed. Strange women who see him of him are afraid. And George Grant and I are now known as the "Just Folks" of the golf course.

Well, if clothing made golfers, the dudes could be great. Their pants would go down and their shirts would be straight. But somehow it doesn't. The dudes are the chaps who refuse to be bound by their club handicaps. They're the fellows who stand on the first tee and say: "This is a fine day for a golf."

"How this year," said George, as we gathered at lunch. "We've a policy now for this stroke. We'll play to the handicap list, high or low. Not a stroke for a bucket of tears we'll better. No waiting and sobbing this year we'll regard. With the leaders and sick men we're going to be hard."

"This is our policy: Spread it about. No strokes for neuritis or backache or gout. No strokes for a blister on finger or toe. Come with fever and chills—still the cheap go. If you're sick, see a doctor. We'll hope that you live. But to nobody sympathy strokes will we give."

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALICE MICHAMUS

Three
To-night the wind blows in from the
The moon goes down, which makes us
Wind, moon and I good company!

The morning tells of ports far out
In fairy tales to the land of
With names to startle as a shout.

Shanghai, Port-Bell and Singapore
Strange men, strange gods and strange
The wind brings tales from every shore!

The white moon comes, cloud-riding, she
Who looks beyond Harry's boundary,
Beyond the land, beyond the sea.

she knows the water between the stars,
Alderaan's far land, red Mars,
And after sun with golden spears.

And if I am the listening one
Who hears what wind and moon have Done, for me their secrets tales are spun!

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES
May 16, 1916
(From The Times Files)

The work of paving Douglas Street, the section between Humboldt and Piquet Streets, will be taken in hand almost immediately, was the statement made by Angus Smith, city engineer, this morning. Mr. Smith said they were going to start at the earliest possible date, so as to take advantage of the good weather.

The opinion prevails amongst all classes in the community that the offer contained in the latest negotiations looking for a settlement in the long-standing Songhies reserve dispute is a very fair one and that the time has arrived when further delay in arranging to throw that area of land, right in the heart of the city, open for development, ought not to be tolerated.

The Smith's Hill reservoir is now nearly full of water and the sewage is a little beyond normal. A test-railing is being erected around the embankment and a caretaker's house is to be built.

The beautiful weather of yesterday draw thousands of people to Beaches Hill Park. During the afternoon the Fifth Regiment band, under Bandmaster Rogers, conducted a programme of music specially selected in memorial of the late King Edward VII.

The Pontiacs won the ball game from the Victoria nine, on Saturday afternoon on the Athletic Park diamond. The score was 9 to 1, and Victoria had one chance to win in the last innings when there were men on second and third and Bob Whyte at bat. Mac Bob followed the example of Munnah and punted the Pontiac delivery over into the Pembroke Street dust, he would have brought in two and got around himself. Bob, unfortunately, did not get the ball squarely on the bat, instead he got the ball on the side and it went straight to third, who passed it to Mac and the match finished with Victoria two points behind.

Street Car Makes Its Last Journey

Associated Press
Eric, Pa., May 16.—The folks made certain that "old 171," Erie's last street car, would end its career in a blaze of glory.
As the last trolley car in this city of 115,000 made its final run, somebody heaved a bag of beer and a box of peanuts aboard and obtained the services of an accordion player. With kerpooes ahead of it all along the tracks and automobiles full of merry makers behind, "old 171" ran the route to the barn, where it was stripped of everything movable as a souvenir.

COAL MEN WANT LARGER MARKET

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, May 16.—Recommendation of a conference of coal dealers is called to consider means of saving and increasing the Canadian coal market was approved at the annual convention of the Western Canada Fuel Association here yesterday.
Speakers declared half of the fuel used in Canada was imported, and declared that a large percentage of the 400,000 tons of coal used for unemployment relief in Ontario came from the United States.

London, Ont. May 16 (Canadian Press).—In the belief that only Divine intervention can remedy the present distressing conditions, and that human efforts are unavailing, the delegates to the Synod of Huron yesterday asked the Primate of the Church of England in Canada, Archbishop Owen of Toronto, to present a petition to the Dominion Government for the setting aside of a day of intercession as soon as possible.

MAN COLLAPSES AS TRIAL HELD

Associated Press
Seattle, May 16.—Earl L. Bernier, Bellingham business man on trial in federal court here with J. Kelly de Priest, former state adjutant of the American Legion, on mail fraud charges, collapsed in a court ante-room yesterday and was removed to a hospital.
Bernier had complained to De Priest, with whom he is accused of defrauding investors of $100,000 in an Angora wool rabbit manufacturing enterprise, that he was not feeling well.
Dr. V. W. Ritter of Tacoma, who examined him, said Bernier had suffered a heart attack, brought on by excitement.

STREET FOR ROLLER SKATERS
Stratford, Ont., May 16 (Canadian Press).—To give roller skating enthusiasts a chance to do their stuff without having to dodge automobiles, and also with a view to saving motorists from the strain of trying to avoid roller skaters, police roped off a section of St. Patrick Street here yesterday evening. About 200 children had a generally merry time.

THE SIGN OF A FAIR DEAL

The Three-Star Imperial oval sign marks a place where you can buy with confidence; where you can be sure of good value and full measure.

It is the symbol of an organization that has steadily improved the quality and consistently reduced the price of petroleum and petroleum products—for gasoline prices today are lower than ever before.

The Three-Star Imperial oval sign stands for a fair deal to all: to you, the consumer, and to the labor engaged in making and marketing Imperial products. The thousands of Imperial Oil workers are well treated. Five thousand of them are part owners of the Company. They are paid good wages. They have sickness and death benefits and old age pensions which mean that in affliction or old age they and their families do not become dependent on funds which must be raised by taxation.

Because they are fairly treated, Imperial Oil employees work loyally, enthusiastically and enterprisingly. That is why, through the years, it has been possible steadily to improve the quality and consistently to lower the price of Imperial gasoline and oils.

INSURANCE AS A STABILIZER

Standing Force on Business Stressed By Thomas Bradshaw

"In observing the ebb and flow of events during the last five years, I have been greatly impressed with what one of our greatest economic stabilizing forces has accomplished. I refer to the insurance. Each working day, on the average, there has been distributed throughout the Dominion by the life insurance companies on behalf of those who, in better days, were wise enough to prepare for the future, more than $25,000,000," says Thomas Bradshaw, president of the North American Life Assurance Company.

"It is a striking example of the foresight and thrift of our people, and it is what such wise qualities can do to ameliorate the effects of economic disturbances. Truly, the insurance is a great stabilizer."

"As we contemplate its influence and value, there come to our minds the principles of the gyroscope. This huge, rapidly revolving wheel, by its own momentum is able to maintain its position; and this principle has recently been applied to some of our larger ships, in which these enormous wheels, revolving in the ship's hull, stabilize the ship and keep it on an even keel despite the fury of the sea."

"Canada during the past five years has been tossed about, but it is especially outdoing the storm. In this she has been assisted by a great internal gyroscope, a huge wheel of liquid credit, of cash, revolving at a rate of $25,000,000 a day, and still continuing to revolve with greatly increasing effect."

Can you give your daughter the things you missed?

In Mrs. Jenkins' case, she wanted her daughter to be popular above all else; to be liked by everyone; to be welcome everywhere; to have a girlhood filled with happiness, new contacts and new ideas. She was determined that Jane's youth should not be like her own—filled with the longing, envy, and despair of a girl who was "never invited." There were several suggestions she could make—and one in particular.

The first lesson in fastidiousness there is nothing that will so quickly and so permanently as halitosis (bad breath).

Affronted by it, few people have the patience or kindness to seek other good qualities the offender may possess.

It is unfortunate that so many people have halitosis; unfortunate, too, that they have it so often; and still more unfortunate that they do not realize when they have it (that's the invidious thing about halitosis).

Since no one is exempt, do not make the mistake of taking your breath for granted. It is wiser to assume that it may be objectionable and take steps to alter it.

It is surprising how quickly Listerine will correct an offensive breath condition. It first cleanses and sweetens the entire oral cavity, then halts fermentation, declared by one authority to be the major source of breath odor. This done, it gets rid of the odor themselves. The breath becomes clean, sweet and wholesome, as only Listerine can make it.

Do not trust your breath to ordinary mouth washes which may be devoid of deodorant power. Use Listerine and be sure—every morning and every night and between times before business and social engagements. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, Toronto, Ontario.

Victoria Ball Team In Surprise Victory Over Tokio Giants

Joe Daley Hurls Masterful Ball To Blank Nippons

THE SPORTS MIRROR

WILLIAM LAWSON LITTLE, the curly-haired golfing giant from San Francisco, who scored a little slam in winning the British and United States amateur titles last year, is a gamester and a sportsman, which qualifies him as a worthy champion.

With only two other United States golfers—T. Saffern Taylor, metropolitan champion, and Dan R. Topping, Connecticut sportsman—in the field with him, he is going to defend his British crown against the pick of the Empire's slalom pures at the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course, May 20. In this way he passes the acid test of a gamester.

That he is a true sportsman is proved by his fulfillment of a promise to return and defend his British title, something the other two American winners—Bobby Jones in 1929, and J. H. Taylor in 1930—did not do. Walter J. Travis, although a native of Australia, won the 1934 title as an American.

Much has happened since Little made that promise. Incidents which might influence a weaker-willed sportsman to crawl back, but the victor's putting finesse disappeared. His game got so bad that he dropped several matches with inferior members of his school team at Stanford. His driving, long his forte, fell off, too, and experts were puzzled for an explanation of his form reversal.

The champion himself blamed his slump to a natural let-up after his peak form in winning both amateur classes, and promised his game would return as soon as competitive pressure again was applied.

Indications that his prediction was no idle chatter were evident during the Masters' Tournament at Augusta, Little finished top-ranking amateur in that tournament, won by Gene Sarazen. The Italian executed one of golf's greatest shots on the fifteenth hole of the last round to the Creek Wood at 280, and went on to win the playoff.

Little's 280 in that tournament was even par for the four rounds. Only Sarazen, Wood, United States open champion, and Denny Shute, finished ahead of him.

Auburn Ace Strikes Out Fourteen in 4-0 Win; Japanese Take Night Game

DALEY TO PITCH AGAIN TO-NIGHT

Playing big league ball behind the brilliant pitching of big Joe Daley, Auburn, Wash., the Victoria Sons of Canada ball club ushered in its 1935 season at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, by chalking up a surprise 4 to 0 victory over the touring Tokio Giants. It was the first defeat suffered by the Japanese in the Pacific Northwest, at the hands of an amateur or semi-pro team. Their only other setback was in a game with the Seattle Indians of the Coast League. In the evening half of the doubleheader the Japanese came back strong to register an 8 to 1 win.

Daley's performance was the finest seen at the Athletic Park since the days of the old Northwest League. The smooth-working right-hander, a tall, dark, well-built fellow, was his great change of pace that completely baffled the Nippons. Daley sent no less than fourteen back to the dugout via the strikeout route, and held the Nippons to six scattered hits. The big fellow was only in trouble on a couple of occasions and then he was able to pitch himself out of difficulty.

GETS HIS HAND In shutting out the Japanese Daley accomplished something that even the Coast League pitchers have found it mighty tough to accomplish. His exhibition was well appreciated by the large crowd and on every appearance at the plate; for his turn at bat, Joe received a big hand from the fans.

Only one error was charged up against the Victoria players in the opener, and that was committed by Slim Belcher, first baseman, on a throw from Daley, in an attempt to catch a base runner who was caught at the plate; for his turn at bat, Joe received a big hand from the fans.

Catcher Ray Barnes of Victoria also distinguished himself by becoming the third catcher to throw out the Japanese, the Japanese team's first error. In the sixth inning the shortstop beat out a scratch hit past third. On the next pitch, Daley, to the best of his ability, attempted to steal second and Barnes cut him off with a beautiful throw that hit the bag a foot high.

In the afternoon game the Japanese had a little trouble in the field and five errors were marked against them. Two making three.

Victoria went into the lead in the third inning. Dunc opened with a screaming single over shortstop. He was sacrificed to second by Barnes. Haugland walked. Bacon struck out on a third called strike. Fleming got a life at first when Babe booted his ground ball. Dunc scoring and Haugland going to second. Holman filed to right.

Victoria got two men on the base in the fourth with nobody out, but the Japanese pulled themselves out of the nasty hole with a double play on Quince's line out to left field.

Action Scene When Victoria Ball Team Defeated Japanese

The above picture was taken in the last half of the fourth inning of yesterday afternoon's baseball game between the Victoria Sons of Canada Club and the touring Tokio Giants, which the local club won 4 to 0. Slim Belcher, local first sacker, is seen in front of the plate, just starting to run to first base. The ball can be seen in air about to be taken by Hatafuku, Japanese pitcher. Joe Daley, who pitched Victoria such a fine victory over the Nippons, is seen in the background.

Charles Walker Is Victor in Marathon

McLarnin Shows Punching Power

Welterweight Knocks Out Frankie Williams, Negro Sparring Partner, in Training For Bout With Rogers; Pop Foster Goes After Suspected Spy

New York, Feb. 16.—"Put that man out," shouted Pop Foster. Jimmy McLarnin apparently thought his manager alluded to Frankie Williams, an amiable negro middleweight who happened to be sparring with him at the moment. For the Vancouver slasher let go an overhand right that landed square on Frankie's chin and the dusky one hit the canvas for a count of eight.

The fact was Foster referred to a spectator at the Vancouver welterweight champion's Swan Lake training camp yesterday. The veteran manager believed he had spotted a spy from the camp of Rogers, who will fight McLarnin on May 28.

After Ben Morovitz had picked himself up from the dusty road where two state troopers deposited him at Foster's abode, he insisted he was just a suit promoter from the Bronx.

And while on the subject of suits, threatened he would press one against Jimmy and his manager, through the courts for wrongful eviction.

Unconcerned, McLarnin went on with his work after Williams had been helped to his dressing room. He went two rounds with Jimmy Martin, not striking out often, but making every blow count, and then worked two more with Calvin Reed, when two more boxing was the order.

Barney Ross was given a day off work. Manager Sammy Plan took the flashy Chicago Hebrew guffing after telling all who would listen that Barney is in good enough shape to enter the ring against the champion to-morrow.

There were 250 entries in the various classes.

GRADS LIFT CAGE HONORS

Edmonton Girls Take Third Straight Games From Des Moines 56 to 28

Edmonton, May 16.—Half of the Edmonton Grads' score was the best the Des Moines cage girls could do yesterday evening in a frenzied last-hour effort to win the Underwood Trophy, and the Grads, champions of Canada and of the world for the last dozen years, made it three games, winning 56 to 28.

The score does not indicate the real opposition provided by the visiting American cagers. In the first quarter they carried the play to the champions, and for a time it appeared that they might take the lead and hold it.

Once again, however, the superior condition of the Grads told, and as the third and fourth quarters were clocked off, the great Edmonton team forged into the lead and were never in any serious difficulties during the last ten minutes of the game.

Not MacDonald, brilliant centre player of the Grads, scored twenty points to-night and was easily the outstanding player on the floor. Gladys Fry, with twelve, and Myrtle Fisher, of Des Moines, with the same number of points, played starry floor games.

The line-ups:
Des Moines—Fisher 12, L. Lindgren, O. Birket, Pedersen, De Krom, E. Lindgren, Lawson 10, Goodman 2.

Edmonton—MacDonald 25, MacDonald 20, Neale 6, Fry 12, Munton 6, Dunn 2, Northup 2, Brown 2. Total 56.

Officials—Arnold Henderson and George L. Farney.

Classy Field For High Track Meet

Effa and Yates Resume Journey

New Westminster, May 16.—Undaunted by rough treatment at the hands of picketing relief camp strikers yesterday, two Victoria wrestlers, Joe Effa and James Yates, resumed their journey towards Edmonton yesterday evening after spending half a day in hospital here.

Effa, twenty-eight-year-old professional wrestling champion, and Yates, nineteen-year-old lightweight, were on their way to the Alberta city to seek honors in the Canadian title meet there May 21, 22 and 23, when they were set upon by the strikers who apparently mistook them for strike-breakers returning to camp.

Students at Fernwood Institution to Go After Records and Championships on May 29; Entry List is Announced

On May 29 track and field stars of Victoria High school will don their spikes in quest of new records at the local institution's annual track and field meet on the school campus.

The yearly sports day of the local High has always been a great success and shows promise of being equally successful this year. The girls' list greatly surpasses the boys' list in the number of entries, the former boasting nearly twice as many.

In the absence of Dick Surphill, who flashed over the sprint distances last year to capture and hold the Victoria High school championship jointly with Bill Dale, who carried off the longer distance honors, Lerne McGregor, Doug Hadden are favorites in the 100-yard dash. Bill Dale, janky half-miler, is favorite to take the distance events again this season. Chuck Stevens and Bob Hughes, both veteran distance men, may give him a good run for his money.

ENTRY LIST
The entry list follows:

Senior 100 Yards—T. Ishida, B. Drummond-Hay, G. Bernie, John, K. Colvin, Duncan, I. McGregor, D. Hadden, J. Ferguson, Bishop and "Porky" Andrews.

Western Clubs Produce Balance of Power In Major Leagues

Honors In First Intersectional Series Decided

Chicago White Sox, New York Giants and Detroit Tigers in Best Showings

GIANTS DIVIDE TWO WITH CARDS

A survey of the results of the first major league baseball intersectional series of 1935—necessarily inconclusive because of the large number of postponements while the eastern clubs of the American League were visiting the west and the National League teams were reversing the order—seems to indicate the balance of power so far lies west of the Alleghenies.

Since the tour began, May 5, the eastern "home" clubs of the series were able to win only seven games and the one against Seattle, while the western American League clubs have won better than eighteen victories in thirteen defeats.

Two Leaders Star
The principal honors in the intersectional struggle went to Chicago White Sox and New York Giants, leaders of the two leagues, and Detroit Tigers.

The White Sox, by trimming the Philadelphia Athletics 5 to 0 yesterday behind the three-hit hurling of Ed Lucie, finished with six victories in eight games. The Giants, after battling to an even break with the Dean brothers of St. Louis before a banner crowd of 41,110 in the windup, won seven games and lost three in addition to a tie with Cincinnati.

Decisive Win
The Phillies, who could not hit when they first moved east, wound up a blast of bludgeoning at Philadelphia by hammering out a 20 to 5 triumph in the final with the aid of two five-run innings and homers by Gus Gahr, Woody Jensen and Arky Vaughan. It was Vaughan's seventh of the season.

Joe Daley, pitcher of the Seattle Nippons, pitched a masterful ball to blank the Chicago White Sox in the first game of the intersectional series.

Evening Game
Feature of the evening game was the speed ball pitching of Seawar, first string chucker of the Nippons. Possessing a fine fast ball, beautiful control and a nasty hook ball, he had the White Sox players on his hip all the time. He fanned thirteen and allowed only four hits.

Hits Home Run
Victor's lone run in the nightcap was a home run by Hal Haugland, local shortstop, in the second inning. It was a terrific smash to right field. The Nippons scored one run in the first, another in the second, and the third run wound up with their four-run spurge in the eighth.

James McNeill, driver for Scott and Peden, narrowly escaped serious injury this morning when his car turned over as he drove his truck off the Island Highway at Langford Crossing to avoid a train.

According to Provincial Police, McNeill was northbound on the highway. As he approached the crossing a train was just starting across the road.

To have continued on his course would have meant a collision with the train, according to police, and to avoid the crash he drove off to the south side of the highway, where the truck turned over.

McNeill suffered a cut over the eye and a few lacerated teeth. For a time he was pinned under the truck. He was freed by J. G. Carmichael and Probationer Gerald Davis rushed from Victoria with Dr. T. W. A. Gray, to the scene. The injured man was taken to the Jubilee Hospital.

There was hardly an occupant of the business offices in the city to-day who was not in possession of a chain letter. The craze has now practically engulfed every avenue of revenue, and the original buyers are commencing to "buy in" again, as their names leave the top of the list.

Many rumors are circulating in regard to the small fortunes made by some persons, but no one is prepared to admit just how much he has made.

There is considerable speculation as to just how long the craze will last, and for this reason the purchase of the letters is being slowed up. The chains flew around the government buildings yesterday and in some offices energetic assistants were dispatching them into the interior and to the Gulf Islands in the hope of striking a centre that has not been "hit" and thus have their names circulated faster.

A lawyer's photographer in the city was reported to have collected $48 in the morning mail to-day in the half-dollar chain which reached the city.

More popular, with a few of the five and ten dollar shots are in circulation. The craze has now practically engulfed every avenue of revenue, and the original buyers are commencing to "buy in" again, as their names leave the top of the list.

HAWAII SUGAR GROWER HERE
A. M. Nowell, Now Retired, Plans Motor Tour of Canadian Rockies

Planning to make a motor tour of Canada and particularly want to see the Canadian Rockies from the highway, A. M. Nowell, of the B.C. Sugar Refining Company Limited, is in the city.

Mr. Nowell recalled to-day the shipment by the Sugar Factors Company, of 25,000 tons of raw sugar from Honolulu to Vancouver to the B.C. Sugar Refining Company Limited, the only order of its kind ever exported from Hawaii to a country other than the United States. This was in the days of the World War, when it was difficult to get sugar through the usual channels. The regular source of supply for the B.C. Refinery were the Fiji Islands and Cuba.

The recent slight rise in the price of sugar in Hawaii is a source of hope to the growers of better market conditions. It was stated by Mr. Nowell, production of sugar is restricted by the import quota of the United States, affecting Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

Mr. Nowell is a close friend of James Dole, the Hawaiian pineapple king, who was a classmate of his in Harvard University in 1909.

Since 1927, Mr. Nowell has been retired from the sugar business, and is now making his home at San Francisco.

Saatchi School May Be Closed
Owing to a decrease in the attendance anticipated next term and as an economy measure, the Saatchi School Board has under consideration, the closing of Saatchi School.

The trustees will meet interested parents next Tuesday evening, in the school, when the question will be discussed.

At a meeting yesterday the trustees were informed that seventeen children were at present attending the school and the annual cost was $44.55. At the end of the current term, however, it will more than double. There will be more than 100 children in the school, which the board considered excessive.

Tarzan The Untamed

Tarzan crawled toward the unexpected entry. Close to his pony, sure, he was and suddenly down upon the Red. Again there was no sound as the ape-man carried the human body toward the lighted garden.

Before Tarzan opened his mouth to the conversation of general, presently an aide entered, saluted and reported. Presently an aide entered, saluted and reported. Presently an aide entered, saluted and reported.

There his attention was drawn to a pompous, red-faced general. Presently an aide entered, saluted and reported. Presently an aide entered, saluted and reported.

A young woman entered, acknowledging the departing of Tarzan's father with a smiling nod. From her folded arms she took a small package and handed it to the general.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I am twenty-two years old. Good-looking, but have little or no education. A very high-class man has fallen in love with me. Chiefly, I think, because I was so fortune and ignorant and alone in the world. He is older than I. He is trying to have me educated because he wants to marry me and he cannot bring me into his circle until I learn how to act, how to talk, how to dress, and he expects me to come through armed with poise, culture and grace. He is giving me a chance to really be somebody, and I love him better than life but it is killing me to spell and talk grammatically. He cannot understand that I am a woman and not a child, and that I want him to love me and take me as I am, but he has let me know that that can never be, and that the only way for me to ever be his wife is to make myself what he wants me to be. What shall I do? WONDERING.

Answer—When people marry out of their own class it seldom brings any happiness to either party, because when the physical attraction that brings a man and a woman together has been dulled they need a common background against which to live their lives together. They must have the same tastes, the same habits, to be accustomed to the same conventions and social usages, to be at home with the same people if their marriage is to be a go.

It is a risky experiment for a man and woman to marry either above themselves or below themselves, and such a marriage can only be a success when the one at the foot of the ladder is a good climber, or the one at the top of the ladder is a little more than a good climber. And in your particular case neither party possesses these essential temperaments.

If you were very clever and exceedingly ambitious, you could make the grade. A great many women have done that. They have lifted themselves from the gutter, if the top corner of society. They have gone from tenements to palaces, and changed from ignorant and uncouth girls to cultured women and arbiters of style.

I personally know one woman whose story matches yours, word for word, in the beginning. She had come from a desperately poor family of no education. She had had to go to work while still a child and her associations had been of the gutter. A rich man fell in love with her pretty face and not only sent her to school but provided her with instructors who taught her how to dress, how to eat, how to enter a room, how to provide at all sorts of entertainments in her own home. They mercifully corrected her pronunciation and her grammar.

This girl had a brilliant mind. She was exceedingly ambitious and she worked like a slave to improve herself, and three years of this intensive training changed her into a polished, cultured woman of the world who was fitted to take her place in any society. But not many girls have the grit and determination to go through what she did, for she had to crush her own vanity and literally make herself over.

Can you do this? Have you even the ability to do this? If God didn't give you an exceptional brain, if He didn't give you a love of intellectual things for their own sake, if He didn't give you a reason to try, if you have the social gift, you can develop it, but you can't originate it, and I think you will be a lot happier married to a man in your own station of life and with your own mental equipment, who thinks you are about all right as you are, instead of with one who is trying to turn you into something you are not and were never intended to be.

Now do I think that the man will be happy if marries you, commanding, as he does, a wife who will be a shining figure in society and reflect distinction upon him. No matter what you do, you will never come up to his expectations. He will always be correcting you. He will always be a critic. And that attitude on a husband's part does not make for happiness in the home.

Far, far better for you both to marry in your own class.

DEAR MISS DIX—We are a poor couple who are being eaten out of house and home by week-end guests. In addition, my husband has been told and I am far from strong and we can't afford either financially or physically to entertain this crowd of deadbeats. What can we do? DISCOURAGED.

Answer—Just write the chief offenders a little note and tell them that while you are sorry not to have them any more, you are simply in no position to run a free hotel. They will be as mad as fury, but you should worry over being rid of a lot of parasites.

Uncle Wiggily and the Kittie's Catnip

By HOWARD E. GARDNER

Once upon a time as Uncle Wiggily was heading through the forest where he had dug up the asparagus root and fished the rabbit garden and Kittie Kat was busy waiting daintily along the path. Kittie was as light as a feather, or a balloon, or a piece of sponge cake, whichever is lightest.

It wasn't that Kittie Kat was proud, though she did smell her last name with a capital K, but she was a little bit of a snob. Kittie Kat just walked daintily because her paws were very soft. And her claws, like the toes of a cat, were hidden up in her soft clippers and clicked on the stones as she trotted and clicked on the stones as she trotted.

"I wonder what Kittie Kat is doing out here in the woods all alone," thought Uncle Wiggily to himself as he watched the little pussy girl stepping daintily along. Perhaps she is looking for the catnip that she wants an adventure. "Well, I'll give her a little catnip."

"I'll sneak up behind her and cry 'Cheer!' if she would an adventure I'll give her a little catnip."

But before Uncle Wiggily could do this he saw Kittie Kat and he hid behind a bush and began to peek come leaves from a bush that was growing near a birch tree. The same tree the back of which was used to flavor the soda water.

"What is Kittie Kat doing?" thought Uncle Wiggily. "She is looking for the catnip that she wants an adventure. 'Well, I'll give her a little catnip.'"

"Kittie Kat is eating some spring catnip and she is always making noises and very queerly. It makes them want to dance and roll around and stand on their heads."
